One-Day Tour: DH06

Limerick, The Cliffs of Moher, Bunratty Castle, The Burren & Galway Bay

Check in Dublin Heuston Station for 07.00hrs departure of InterCity train to Limerick. (breakfast/snack car available). This day tour will take you to the most popular visitor attraction outside of Dublin – the Cliffs of Moher, on the Wild Atlantic Way. Sit back and relax as your train glides through the heart of Ireland, an ancient landscape littered with castles. We join our coach at Limerick, which sits on the mighty River Shannon, to visit Bunratty Castle & Folk Park Village en route to our lunch stop, Gus O'Connor's famous seafood pub in Doolin (not included). Then, the spectacular Cliffs of Moher, some of the highest sea cliffs in Europe. Enjoy a short hike along the cliff path rising 215 metres above the pounding Atlantic Ocean. We continue along the Wild Atlantic Way through the lunar landscape of the Burren region, a UNESCO Geo-Park famous for its fauna and flora. We then head along the shores of Galway Bay for a flavour of Galway City, traffic permitting. We join your InterCity train at Galway Ceánnt Station, for our train to Dublin at 19.20hrs departure. Arriving at Dublin Heuston Station 21.45hrs (9.45pm).

The All-Ireland Tour

Day 1

Check in Dublin Heuston Station for 07.00hrs departure of InterCity train to Cork (breakfast/snack car available). Enjoy a visit to the world renowned Blarney Castle & Gardens and the Queenstown Story at Cobh, the Titanic's last port of call and the rescue harbour for the Lusitania survivors in 1915. After a scenic train journey through the ancient Irish landscape dotted with castles, we transfer by coach to Blarney Castle and Village where we can kiss the famous Blarney Stone known as the "Stone of Eloquence". "Enjoy shopping time and lunch (not included) at Blarney Woollen Mills and village before heading to our next destination, via coach. We visit Cobh – the embarkation point for generations of Irish emigrants to the new world, including passengers for the Titanic." Experience the "Queenstown Story". Enjoy a scenic rail journey from Cobh to Cork for transfer to Killarney. Overnight in Killarney four star standard hotel.

Day 2

The world-renowned Ring of Kerry, with its overwhelming mountains and seascapes, is one of Ireland's most scenic delights. We travel by coach around the 100mile/179km long Ring of Kerry, where every bend reveals some of the most spectacular scenery in Ireland set between the mountains of Kerry, 'The Macgillycuddy's Reeks', and the Wild Atlantic coastline. Our day starts in Killarney as we then sweep along the north side of the Iveragh peninsula. Then it's onto the south side, through the villages of Waterville and Sneem, and into the pristine Killarney National Park. Enjoy views of The Skellig Islands where Star Wars "The Force Awakens" was recently filmed. Then we drop down alongside the Black Valley and Moll's Gap, stopping at Ladies View. Lunch stop at traditional Irish pub on this scenic journey (not included). We return to Killarney for your second overnight stay.

Day 3

07.30hrs transfer by road from Killarney to Limerick to visit Bunratty Castle, Cliffs of Moher, 2 overnights in Galway City in three-star standard hotel.

Day 4

10.00hrs depart Galway for tour of Connemara, including Kylemore Abbey & Gardens. Overnight in Galway City in three-star standard hotel.

Day 5

09.30 Transfer to Inis Mór, the largest of the Aran Islands, we enjoy a tour of the Island including a visit to the fortress of Dún Aengus. After return to Galway City for 19.20 hrs train to Dublin arriving 21.40. Transfer to Dublin City Centre Hotel.

Day 6

Check in Dublin Connolly Station for 07.35hrs departure of newly refurbished Enterprise express service to Belfast (breakfast/snack car available). The famous Causeway Coastal Route Drive, the Giants Causeway, Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge all in one day! We arrive in Belfast and then travel by coach north from Belfast along the famous Antrim Coast Road through Ballycastle en route to the Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge. Our lunch stop is usually in a traditional coastal pub in the area (not included). We continue along the Causeway Coast, one of the most magical drives in Europe, to the stunning Giant's Causeway. Spend some time climbing over the ancient stones and enjoying the myths and legends associated with this famous attraction. Next we enjoy a photo stop at the huge bastion of Dunluce Castle, then back to Belfast for a short tour before returning back to Dublin. Arriving at Dublin Connolly Station 22.15hrs (10.15pm) transfer to Dublin City Centre Hotel for overnight stay.

Terms & Conditions

THE FOLLOWING STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLY TO ALL BOOKINGS

Railtours Ireland First Class (RTIFC) is dedicated to providing a professional and personalised service. It is our intention to operate all tours as advertised. However, due to operational reasons it may, on occasion, be necessary to alter certain itineraries. Railtours Ireland cannot be held liable in the event of an attraction being closed. Student discounts, special offers and other discounts can only be given if requested at time of booking. No discounts can be given retrospectively.

Railtours Ireland First Class cannot be held responsible for customers not having the correct visa documentation to enter Ireland or Northern Ireland.

Railtours Ireland First Class reserves the right to cancel tours if industrial or other action affects any of the components which make up our tour or if there is insufficient demand.

For any tours that include a trip to the Aran Islands the following condition applies: Should weather conditions be such as to curtail flights you will be taken on an alternative tour to Connemara and refunded the difference. No further refund available should you decide not to go to Connemara for any reason.

Railtours Ireland First Class cannot be held responsible for any damage, loss (including loss of tickets), accident, delay, irregularity, injury to person or property whatsoever or howsoever caused arising out of or in connection with excursion, tour or transfer. Passengers travel at their own risk and our liability for any claim whatsoever is limited only to the price of the tour.

CANCELLATION POLICY - "If you miss the train, you miss the tour"

DAY TOURS: 24 hours' notice prior to the departure time must be given in order to get a refund on any day tour.

EXTENDED TOURS: 48 hours' notice prior to the departure time if the tour includes accommodation (Except for The Emerald Isle Express tour where 60 days' notice is required).

ALTERATIONS: Once reservations are confirmed by RTIFC and after a grace period of 72 Hours (3 days) any alterations to the reservation of extended tours (any tours with accommodation) including but not limited to, change of date, tour change, will be subject to a fee of EURO 49.00 per booking.

"If you miss the train, you miss the tour"

All refunds are subject to a 10% administration charge. We reserve the right to refuse admission to any tour and to terminate a tour if circumstances demand.

UNUSED TOUR ARRANGEMENTS: RTIFC cannot make refunds or exchanges for unused accommodation, services or features of any tour unless agreed to prior to departure.

CLAIMS OR DISPUTES: RTIFC take complaints very seriously and we ask if you are not satisfied with any aspect of our service that you submit your complaint in writing no later than 28 days after the end of your tour. Involving social media before contacting RTIFC will automatically void any further responsibility on behalf of the company.

HOTELS: All hotels are subject to availability at time of booking. Please note that due to a critical hotel shortage in Ireland we may on occasion use hotels just outside the city or town centre. This can be the difference between confirming or rejecting your booking, however we will always let you know prior to final confirmation.

LUGGAGE ALLOWANCE: There is no limit to the amount of luggage and there are luggage facilities on board trains & coaches and we try to keep luggage transfers between trains and coaches to a minimum. However, it is strongly recommended that large excess amounts of luggage be stored, perhaps, at your Dublin hotel for the duration of your railtour.

ACCESSABILITY: As long as the individual has some mobility then our tours would be suitable. The trains are wheelchair friendly in Ireland however the buses/coaches are not. The guest would have to be able to climb the steps on to the bus. It is with regret that we cannot accommodate Mobility Scooters on our tours.

CURRENCY: "All US$, CAD$, AUD$ and GPB€ prices displayed on our website are approximate and subject to fluctuations in exchange rates."

PLEASE NOTE

Online Tour Operators / Tour / Inward Operators guests receive the following in relation to overnight tours:
